DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 1-10 are rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

The claim(s) are narrative in form and replete with indefinite and functional or operational language. The structure which goes to make up the device must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device. The claim(s) must be in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited.

2. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

For example claim 1, line 1, "intended" is indefinite since it is not clear if there is contact. See also claim 1, line 4.

Claim 1, line 2, "or" is indefinite since the use of alternative language results in confusion as to which element is being claimed.

Claim 1, line 2, "characterized by the fact that" is not proper US form. Consider – comprising --.

Claim 1, line 3, "it" renders the claim indefinite since it is not clear what this pronoun is referring to.

Claim 1, line 3, "turning on its axis" is indefinite since it is not clear which axis it is turning about and for the use of the pronoun "it".

Claim 1, line 4, "or" is indefinite since the use of alternative language results in confusion as to which element is being claimed.

Claim 1, line 6, "likely to undergo a deformation" renders the claim indefinite since it is not clear if the deformation takes place.

Art Unit: 3682

Claim 1, line 8, "the transmission zone" lacks antecedent basis.

Generally speaking, claim 1 is indefinite in its entirety. The claim begins by claiming a moving part which is in contact with a moving or fixed element. The later in the same claim a transmission or bearing wheel is in contact with the moving or fixed element.

Applicant must review the claims in their entirety for compliance with this statute.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-10, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cadman (1,015,870).

Cadman shows the claimed subject matter where a gear (5) has teeth (8) and resilient material (9) which absorbs the shock and noise from the gear mesh of another gear (6).

5. Claims 1-10, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Bowers (3,808,906).
